INTRODUCTION

Why scholarships matter?

- Help pay for college expenses, such as tuition, books, and living costs
- Reduce financial burden, allowing students to focus on their studies
- Students can avoid taking out loans, which means they won't have to repay large amounts of money after graduation
- Overall make college more accessible for first-generation lower income students

STARTING YOUR SCHOLARSHIP RESEARCH

STEP 1

•RESEARCH SCHOLARSHIPS

- Start your search for scholarships as early as your junior year and actively search for scholarships, especially those available to juniors

STEP 2

•FOLLOW A TIMELINE

- Finding scholarships and grants as a junior is easier than you think! Start by talking to your school counselor, then use online tools like Fastweb, Scholly and College Board to explore options that match your interests and future plans. Don't forget to check out what colleges and your state offer, and the timelines

STEP 3

•USE ONLINE WEBSITES

- Visit websites like Fastweb, QuestBridge, Scholarships.com, Scholly & College Board to help you find out more about the many scholarships and grants that are offered to first generation students.

PREPARING FOR SCHOLARSHIP ESSAYS

We covered how to research for scholarships, required qualifications, documents and information that are required for different scholarships. Scholarship Essays also play a very important part when your application is being reviewed.

Here are just a few tips on how to approach and write the scholarship essays:

➤ Stick to the Question and Be Honest 📌

- Read the question carefully and answer exactly what is asked
- If you can choose the topic, pick one you care about
- Be truthful—don't lie or exaggerate. Just be yourself

➤ Research the Scholarship Program Online 🖥️

- Search the scholarship provider online and learn what they care about
- Find out what kind of students received the scholarship in the past and use that to help you write

➤ Plan Before You Write 📝

- Make a list of your ideas before you start writing
- This will help you stay organized and make writing easier

➤ Use a Simple Writing Structure ✍️

- Divide the essay in 3 parts - Introduction, Main Part (Body) and Conclusion
- Use short paragraphs for each new idea
- Finish with a strong closing statement about why you want the scholarship or why education is important to you

➤ Be Clear and Specific 🎯

- Write clearly and get to the point, use simple words
- Give specific examples and details instead of talking in general terms
- Keep your sentences short and easy to understand

➤ Follow the Word Limit 🖨️

- Don't write more than the word limit. Stay close to it without going over
- Use a word count tool to keep track of how much you've written

➤ Give Yourself Time ⌚

- Start your essay at least two weeks before the deadline
- Revise your essay and ask someone you trust to give feedback

➤ Say Thank You 🙏

- If you have space, end your essay with a simple thank you for the opportunity

In addition to this, it is always recommended to practice frequently asked questions on scholarship applications and get them reviewed by a mentor, senior or your high school counsellor.

Here are the top 10 most common scholarship essay prompts:

- Tell us more about yourself
- What impact has sports had on your life? (if you are applying for an athletics based scholarship program)
- How have you contributed to your community, or what community service have you provided?
- Why do you want to pursue this degree?
- How are you unique?
- Tell us about a time you failed and what you learned from it.
- What are your academic and your career goals?
- Tell us about a time when you had a belief or idea challenged.
- Why do you deserve this scholarship?
- How will this scholarship help you?

UNDERSTANDING FINANCIAL AID

What is FAFSA?

The 'Free Application for Federal Student Aid' or 'FAFSA' is one of the best resources available today which helps students who need financial aid in order to pursue higher education and work towards a brighter future.

The FAFSA program helps students secure loans & grants provided by the government in order for students have access to college education.

Here's what you need to do to apply through FAFSA:

DOCUMENTS REQUIRED

- Parents' SSNs if they have SSNs and you're a dependent student
- Your Social Security Number
- Tax returns
- Records of child support received
- Current balances of cash, savings, and checking accounts
- Net worth of investments, businesses, and farms

CREATE FSA ID

- An FSA ID is a username and password that you'll use to log in to your FAFSA account
- Both you and your parent, will need to create separate FSA IDs
- You can create your FSA ID at www.fsaaid.ed.gov.

ONLINE FORM

- Basic information such as name, date of birth, SSN, etc.
- List up to 10 schools that you are interested
- Dependency Status: Determine if you're a dependent or independent student and provide information about yourself and your parents in order to determine your status.
- Parent Information: If you're a dependent student, provide information about your parents, including their financial details such as tax returns, income receipt etc.
- Financial Information: Your and your parents' tax return information, salary slips etc.
- Sign and Submit: Both you and your parent then need to sign the FAFSA form using your FSA IDs and submit the form
- NOTE: There is a provision available to adjust your financial aid if your family's financial situation changes in the future.

After completing all the steps and submitting the form, the organization will process your information and inform you if you are eligible for loans or grants under the FAFSA program.

Some more information about FAFSA can be found here at www.studentaid.gov and watch this video where The FAFSA program is explained <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NmEP38x-1Z8>

If you find the form a little bit difficult to fill out and need help filling the FAFSA form, check out this reference video <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Oe3AwuonpPg>

Frequently Asked Questions

Who should complete the FAFSA?

Any student planning to attend college or a career school should complete the FAFSA. It is used to apply for federal, state, and school-based financial aid

What is FAFSA and why is it important?

FAFSA is a form that students in the U.S. fill out to apply for financial aid for college. It's important because it determines your eligibility for federal grants, loans, and work-study programs

How do I apply for FAFSA?

You can apply for FAFSA online at FAFSA website. You'll need to gather documents like your Social Security number, tax returns, and records of any untaxed income. Follow the steps to fill out the form, and make sure to submit it before the deadline

When should I complete the FAFSA Form?

Applications open on October 1 and close on June 30. Even with that window, it's a good idea to submit your FAFSA as early as possible because many schools distribute funding on a first-come, first-served basis
